mand Jubilee Year

FIRST MARTIN HALL: 1901-1965 (MAIN BUILDING)

SYMBOL OF GROWTH

In the year 1976, when the nation gives pause to reflect on 200 years of its history, the University of Southwestern Louisiana also proudly takes note of its 75 years of educational development in Acadiana.

A tree, as you know, is an ideal and traditional symbol of growth. It is this concept, perhaps, in addition to his love of Louisiana's live oak trees, that prompted Dr. Edwin L. Stephens, first president of this University, to plant on the main campus, along Johnston and now University Avenue on the first day of this 20th century, a row of young live oak trees.

The University, like these "20th Century Oaks," has grown and flourished. Through its graduates it has spread its influence around the world. In this 75th year of providing education for excellence, this University is not only celebrating its Diamond Jubilee but also perpetuating its living traditions . . . traditions established by its students, its faculty and administration, its alumni and the friends of the University.

The University of Southwestern Louisiana is dedicated to the principle that educational excellence is one of man's noblest works. The University's current enrollment of 13,078 is in sharp contrast with the 145 students who were enrolled on Sept. 18, 1901, when classes began.

So, too, is its present physical plant. Through its many diverse facilities and its varied educational, social, cultural and recreational programs, USL, like the live oak trees which border its main campus, will continue to flourish and spread its influence over Acadiana and far-flung places of the world.

Students, faculty, administration and friends of USL are sharply aware of the significance of the University in the growth of this area and in the promise of its future in continuing to influence the area for the betterment of its people. There will always be those whose love of the University will find them willing and able to meet whatever challenges that will face it in the years to come

Ray Paul Authement, President

During this Diamond Jubilee of USL, significant events in the 75-year history of the University will be noted. The Diamond Jubilee is observed in conjunction with the nation's Bicentennial to emphasize the part that higher education has played in the development of this country and particularly the part USL has had in the development of Southwest Louisiana.

One of the major events in that very important first year of the Southwestern Louisiana Industrial Institute, as the University was first named, was the ceremony held on June 15, 1901, to mark the dedication of the Institution's first academic building, referred to until 1921 as, the "Main Building" and later as Martin Hall in honor of its legislative founder.

USL History — The present organization and status of the University of Southwestern Louisiana represent a process of growth covering a span of 75 years. It continues to grow in order to meet the student and community needs even now when other colleges and universities in the country are struggling with declining enrollments and a tightening economy.

Since its founding, USL has had five presidents: Edwin L. Stephens, 1900-1938; Lether Edward Frazer, 1938-1941; Joel L. Fletcher, 1941-1966; Clyde L. Rougeou, 1966-1974; and Ray P. Authement, 1974 to the present.

1898 — Southwestern Louisiana Industrial Institute was established by Act 162 of the Louisiana Legislature. The bill's author, Robert Martin, was a State Senator, whose intention was to provide Southwest Louisiana with a vocational educational institute similar to one that had been provided in 1894 for North Louisiana in Ruston.

1900 — At the first Board of Trustees meeting, Dr. Edwin L. Stephens was elected president. Lafayette was chosen as the site, partly due to a donation of land for the school by Mrs. Maxim Girard and her son, Crow Girard, Pres. of the Bank of Lafayette. Also included was a donation of $8,000.

1901 — Mai Building was dedicated and later it was renamed Martin Hall in the 1920's in honor of the Senator. September:

School opened with its first enrollment of 145; 95 boys, 50 girls. Admission required candidates to be over 14 years of age and able to do 7th grade work. Salaries of first teachers: $1,000 for men and $600 for women. Curricula: English, French, Mathematics, Science, Music, Drawing, Gymnastics, Manual Training, Domestic Economy, Bookkeeping and Stenography. The library occupied one room in the Main Building, and contained 675 volumes. Constructed first residence hall, which was later named Foster.

1903-1904 — Graduated first class of 10. President's residence erected. Students organized and published a newspaper, The Vermillion. The Southwest Alumni Association formed and is still active today.

1904 — The Interscholastic Athletic and Oratorical Association was organized, and held its first contest on the campus in 1906. The events were primarily track events.

1905 — Added faculty in Latin, Art, Geography, Drawing and Telegraphy. Graduated 62 students.

1907 — Requirements for admission raised to 8th grade level. Enrollment was up to 265. Completed second residence hall which was later named De Clouet.

1908 — Began participating with area schools in football events.

1911-1912 — The first student annual, L'Acadien, was published. Track team organized.

1914-1915 — Organized baseball team. Built Brown Ayres, the Arts Building, which cost $14,593. The building was destroyed by fire in 1972.

TRANSITIONAL YEARS

1916-1917 — The school's curricula consisted of: four two-year teacher training courses; a four-year academic industrial course; a one-year commercial course, and stenographic course. Enrollment was 322, with 24 faculty members. Operational budget $45,000. The total cost for room, board, laundry, medical services, books and supplies, lab fees and matriculation was $160 per session.

1917-1918 — Southwestern became a junior college, providing the last year of high school and the first two years of college. Teacher training summer sessions attracted 313 students.

1919 — Acquired a 125-acre farm and barn for agriculture instruction; gymnasium was converted to dining hall by student labor.

1920-1921 — The Constitutional Convention of 1921 designated Southwestern one of the institutions of higher learning in Louisiana. Southwestern was composed of four separate colleges, each having its dean and faculty. Each college offered degrees in areas of Liberal Arts, Education, Agriculture, and Engineering. High school courses were phased out.

Name changed to Southwestern Louisiana Institute of Liberal and Technical Learning, to reflect new status. Enrollment was 280, and granted first Bachelors' degrees to 86 candidates.

1921 — Twentieth Anniversary was marked by the renaming of buildings in honor of the school's supporters: Main Building became Martin Hall; the oldest dorm, Foster Hall after a former Louisiana governor; the newer dorm, DeClouet Hall, honoring a member of the legislature who helped obtain funds; and Brown Ayres Hall after one of the original Board of Trustees members.

1922-1923 — Girard Hall completed. Total costs per session were $265.40.

1923 — Library, containing 5,800 volumes, moved to Girard Hall which was also used for classrooms. Main campus consisted of 50 acres, and a college farm of 125 acres. There were five permanent brick buildings and eight frame structures. The catalog added the following courses: Art, Biology, Chemistry, Commerce, Business Administration, Economics, Sociology, History, Foreign Languages, Political Science, Physics, Mathematics, Public Speaking, Physical Education, Music, and Veteran Rehabilitation. The only purely administrative offices were the Registrar, Business Manager, and Superintendent of Grounds and Buildings.

This year, 1976, the United States of America is observing its two hundredth birthday. Looking back over two hundred years, the history presents a colorful array of events which drastically altered the course of this country.

It all started on July 4, 1776, when a new nation was founded. This Nation set up a new system of government, which many Europeans thought would never last. The Americans, then, as now, thought of themselves as a new strain of people in a fast growing but young country. These first Americans were intent on proving to the rest of the world that they could carry out their plan of having elected officials govern the new nation. They also advocated equal opportunity for all men and a system to protect and extend personal liberties.

The goals of the new nation were documented in The Declaration of Independence. This document contained two earth-shaking propositions: that all men are created equal and that government must not exist without the consent of the governed. Thus the country was an independent nation and no longer considered "The Thirteen Colonies."

SIGNING THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

THE BECKONING OF A NEW NATION

E Pluribus Unum was proposed as the motto of the United States in 1776 by John Adams, Thomas Jefferson and Benjamin Franklin. It took six years to agree on the motto.

In the early 1600's the North American shore was invaded by a host of European peoples as well as enslaved Africans. These immigrants displaced the Indians along the seaboard. Throughout the years the settlers established small communities along the eastern coast of the North American shore. By 1773 the people, still faithful to English customs and institutions, were starting to regard themselves as a distinct people. The British, feeling that the "Americans" were straying from their authority, tried to tighten controls but this only led to a split between the Mother Country and the Thirteen Colonies. Thus in 1776 the Americans proclaimed their independence.

The principal fire-arm used during the revolution was the musket, a shoulder gun weighing about 10 pounds. It wasn't very accurate, and it had a terrific ability to recoil. It may have knocked down more of its owners than the soldiers at which it was aimed.

After 1776 a long war was fought in order that the United States of America would be recognized as a free country, separate from England and her power.

The day in the life of a soldier was not a very glamorous story. The American troops were not trained in war strategies, and they lacked the discipline of the British troops. When French and Spanish troops came to the aid of the Americans, the tide seemed to turn and the Americans were the victors.

After this decided victory, the democratic republic forged forward in an effort to strengthen their union and later to gain material wealth and power.

MANIFEST DESTINY

The new nation developed and as the settlers moved westward, the country prospered. The farms yielded greater harvests and new factories were ever cropping up. Railroads, roads and canals were the main means of getting from one place to another. The governmental system ran smoothly and met the need of the changing times.

Manifest Destiny was a result of the American need to expand and the answer to the zeal and enthusiasm. This phenomenon led to a war with Mexico, the acquisition of California and New Mexico, and to the settlement of Oregon. The free-soil Northerners resisted the demands of proslavery Southerners, that the territories be opened to slavery. The Compromise of 1850 was, it was hoped, to be an end to the sectional strife on the issue of slavery expansion and economic policy.

The Golden Spike ceremony at Promontory, Utah May 10, 1869 marked the completion of the transcontinental railroad and opened up the last of the great frontiers.

For seven decades the political institution worked well. It was doing the job that the forefathers had planned — that is, to maintain a delicate balance between individual liberty and social order.

In 1861 eleven southern states separated from the rest of the country to form their own union. The nation was at near collapse, and it was plunged into a civil war which lasted for four long years.

In the decades after the war, an economical social and demographic order was transforming the country. The American way of life was profoundly altered. The railroads were grouping together to insure better and faster services and uniting the country from the eastern shore to the western plains.

Also, at this time the Industrial Revolution was taking place. Some American businessmen, known as entrepreneurs, changed to a great extent, the business structure of the country. Businesses went from small shops and home businesses to a vast economic empire.

This change-over of industrial and economic power brought on a huge migration of people from Southern and Eastern Europe. These people made up the labor force which was necessary to run the business establishments that were springing up.

WORLD WAR I A DRASTIC CHANGE

Thus, as the 20th century rolled around, the United States was a little over one hundred years old and the pains of age were showing in the problems that were starting to arise.

The Progressives, a political party during the years before World War I, advocated that if people were shown what was "right" that they would act in the general interest. This was a very optimistic point of view. The Progressive Party sought to make government more responsive to the desire of the majority of the people.

When World War I started, the Progressive point of view was severely shaken. They realized that the world would not be "safe" for the progressive government. This progressive attitude was restored during the 1930's, the Great Depression years, when Franklin Roosevelt's New Deal was in operation trying to restore the nation to its former condition. The faith in the democratic form of government also was restored.

Robert Fulton perfected the steamboat in 1811. It made its first appearance in New Orleans the following year.

The first thought to be transmitted via telegraph from one community to another was: "What hath God wrought?" The message was flashed over the wire between Baltimore and Washington, D.C., in 1844.

Communist threat, the Cold War Fascism, atomic and nuclear power were all present during the first part of the 20th Century. The United States tried to demonstrate to the rest of the world the virtues of freedom. One way to accomplish this goal was to eliminate the wrong at home and then proceed to help the other nations of the world eliminate their own problems through a series of military and economic programs. These programs further accomplished the aim of America which was to "make the world a better place to live."

In this Bicentennial year, of 1976, the American people should realize that it is from our past that we can learn to create our future. The awareness of the past is vital as our nation enters its third century of existence, a most challenging endeavor.

ADMINISTRATION: The administration consists of those persons who make decisions about maintenance and policy of the University. Pictured here is Dean Blanco instructing students at a summer orientation session, the first taste of administrative control.

AMUSEMENT: College may be the place to study, but "all work and no play . . ." Besides the distractions offered through the Union, there is also the recreation center which offers bowling, pool, foosball and pinball not to mention snacks and good company.

ART: If you're looking for an interesting major or elective, check into the art curriculum. You'll find everything from sculpture and painting to pottery and advertising design. Take your pick.

ATTORNEY: One of the services provided by student fees is a student attorney. He can answer your questions about landlords, leases and any number of other questions you can come up with. Take advantage of this service.

B

BLACK EXPO week was held again this year and one of the major events was the Miss Black Expo Beauty Pageant, this year's winner was Cindy Jack. BOYCOTT: Some teachers and students of USL acted positively (and politically) this semester when they boycotted for teacher pay raises. This is the first time I have seen anything of this nature, and it made me realize how politically ignorant and inactive I am. Are you?

CAFETERIA: Cafeteria food is at best a controversial issue. But how many cafeterias can boast of the largest po-boy in the world? Only U.S.L.'s.

CONSTRUCTION: Close to the men's dorms many people watch with careful attention the progress being made on the new art building. Hopefully we'll be in it by Fall of '76. Pictured at the ground breaking ceremony are President Authement, Dean Cosper, and Governor Edwards.

D

DIRTY CLOTHES: Just another part of that wonderful college independence.

DORMS: Dorm life (like the cafeteria) is controversial. It's a great way to make new friends — but how do you get away from them to study?

DRAMATICS: Many forms of dramatic entertainment can be found on our campus. From the plays in Burke Hall to the Dance performances pictured at the far right.

E

ENTERTAINMENT: Ron Sowell, The Pointer Sisters, Josh White, Jr., Loggins and Messina, Steve Martin, The Howard Hanger Trio, Commander Cody, Coco Dris — Dances, Coffee houses, Concerts — That's USL entertainment.

FACULTY: One semester you'll get a prof who actively watches and encourages everything you do. Next you'll get someone who couldn't care less. The second type is easier, but when you get the first you know you'll get smarter as well as older. At right, Dr. Rod Grossman "gets into" his discussion.

FINALS: An unfortunate fact of school life —

FOOTBALL: "Operation Turnaround" seems to be working. Check out our winning season!

G

GOVERNMENT: The Student Government Association is headed by President Cary Menard; Vice President George Neale; and Treasurer Rick Roberts. Among other things, our campus governing body has devised a working parking system, something which everyone should admit was needed very badly. In order to assure prompt action on any problems, you should get to know the senators in your college. They are your voice.

GRADUATION has been a controversial issue for some time. Should I attend or not? Why do we have to waste money on robes? Speeches bore me! . . . I only hope I'm confronted with these problems someday.

GROUNDS: USL has some of the prettiest and some of the ugliest grounds in this state. It would be nice, if the school invested a little more time and money in trees and shrubbery for areas near the "back" of campus. The people that live and pass there would appreciate it.

H

HOLIDAYS: One of my favorite parts of school is going home for the holidays. Ah, the food . . . and cheerful family . . . and old friends . . . and joking family . . . and getting away from it all . . . and chiding family . . . and familiar places . . . and griping family . . . One of my favorite parts of school is coming back from the holidays.

HOMEcoming: For a "party school" this is the game of the season. Dates that start early Saturday and last until the wee hours Sunday are a common sight. Drooping eyes, wilted flowers and wrinkled suits don't make any difference. It was a great USL Homecoming!

HOUSING: USL has its own low rent district called Vet. Village, and though it's not comprised of the showiest homes in town, you'll find most of the tenants pretty happy.

I

INFIRMARY: This is where students may go for inexpensive tea and sympathy and penicillin prescriptions.

INFORMATION DESK (in the Union): Located right around the corner from the check cashing window and next to the candy counter is the Union information desk. It probably doesn't do half the business that the other two do, but when you need to know something, you'll be glad it's there.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS: USL opens her doors to foreign students and then welcomes them in with a variety of programs that include such things as a welcoming tea, a workshop with an officer from the Immigration and Naturalization Service, and an introduction to student services available on campus among others. Who wouldn't feel at home with a start like this?

INTERVIEWS: In an effort to offer the student's views to those who will listen, The Vermillion has been interviewing students. They cover a variety of subjects from dead week to campus food. Look out, Melanie could catch you next.

INTRAMURALS: For relief from the boredom of sitting in class all day, intramural sports are available. If you've got a team, check with the intramural department today and sign up. There's always room for one more.

J

K

JAWS: The closest thing USL has to "Jaws" is the happy munching of everyone on Lagniappe Day. What are they munching? Crawfish, of course.

JEANS: The average student has a wardrobe comprised of  $\frac{2}{3}$  jeans and  $\frac{1}{3}$  other. The jeans come in well-worn, medium and new. If you doubt the validity of these statements, sit anywhere on campus (preferably a well populated area) for five minutes and take your own census.

KIDS: Where there is life and love there will soon be kids.

L

LIBRARY: Standing tall at the end of Hebrard Drive is the source of all knowledge, the library. Almost everyone has seen the inside before they graduate. Will you?

LINES: The first thing every USL student becomes oriented to is LINES. And, they are the last things one sees before leaving. But just think, we now have computerized scheduling, and LSU is still standing in LINES.

L

LAGNIAPPE DAY came into being to fill a basketball gap and has become a Ragin' Cajun tradition. Now, it encompasses sporting competition, arts and crafts, afternoon concerts, and a finale of Crawfish and Concert in the Coliseum. Let's keep it up!

MAIL: I dust my box once a week but it's still my favorite place to go. It must be the undying anticipation; or is it that once a month letter with that once a month check.

MILITARY: For those who are militarily inclined, USL offers ROTC. And what does ROTC have to offer? Among other things, an opportunity for financial assistance while in college and an officer's position when you graduate.

MONEY: Many famous sayings have been uttered about the relationship between the student and money; "Parting is such sweet sorrow," "... for me and my true love will never meet again," "Money is the root of all evil students (and sometimes their salvation)."

MOVIES: One of the Union's latest feats was to transform the movie theater into the "Bayou Bijou." The Films Committee, which offers a variety of provocative and classic films, has now added another Touch of Class.

N

NEWS: A USL student never needs to be uninformed. With the "Vermillion," our billboards, and T.V. and radio stations close at hand, there's no excuse. Keep your eyes open for announcements of special speakers and events that are open to you (especially because you are a USL student).

O

ORIENTATION: Programs are offered to introduce new students to campus life and USL life in particular.

PANTY RAIDS: A small part of the very exciting Homecoming week, panty raids are one of the great things about living in the dorm. Apartment dwellers are still trying to come up with a comparable treat.

PARKING: Synonymous with "problem" — at least it used to be.

PEP RALLIES: Nobody can say USL doesn't have spirit!

Quiet Hours
8 p.m. - 7 a.m. Sun-Thu
Reasonable quiet at all times!!!
Now in effect!!!

R

QUIET HOURS: Designed to make you study, I'm afraid quiet hours only cause most of us to get into trouble with our counselors.

RED TAPE: All institutions are unfortunately held together by "red tape."

RELAXATION: According to Webster's dictionary, one definition of relaxation is, "Diversion or recreation." It has been my observation that students at USL know this definition.

RUSH: You'll have a good chance to meet people and find out a lot about campus life if you go through "rush." Take the time and enjoy it.

S

SHUTTLE BUSES: A comparatively new attraction yet an already familiar sight are the shuttle buses that have helped to solve our campus parking problem.

SKI: One exciting way to spend the Christmas Holidays is skiing in Colorado. From snow plow queen to the Olympics — it's great fun.

SWAN: It's "tea for two" again as Angel Flight brings in a new mate for our friend.

WALKING: The main mode of transportation on campus is walking. Some people develop an intriguing style while others simply put one foot in front of the other. Well, it gets you where you're going.

WEEKENDS: Whether you're planning to go home or stay at school, everyone needs a break, and weekends are the answer.

XEROX: One of a student's best friends is the Xerox machine. It saves time, and we all know how precious time is.

PERSONALITIES

Who's Who at USL

This year thirty outstanding students were chosen to be members of Who's Who. These men and women represent the diversity of the USL student body. They include graduate students and seniors who major in many different fields of study and come from many different places. Yet, each of these students have many things in common. They were considered by the faculty and students of USL to be outstanding in their academic achievements, extracurricular contributions to the school and community, and character and personality. These students exhibit the conscientiousness and spirit which are the essence of the university. The L'ACADMIEN staff congratulates them on their many accomplishments and wishes each of them continued success and happiness in the future.

Doris Regan Crowned Ms. University

Fifteen girls were chosen to compete for the title of Ms. University on the basis of their beauty, talent and personality. When the evening was over, freshman Doris Regan, sponsored by Kappa Delta sorority, was crowned as the new Ms. University. Below is Miss Regan and the members of her court: Jeri Toce, first runner-up; Joy Webre, second runner-up; Camille Pavy, third runner-up; and Carmen Crawford, fourth runner-up. The contestants provided an enjoyable and entertaining evening for the large audience in the USL ballroom.

Judges Evaluated More Than Beauty

Beauty was not the only factor involved in choosing the winner of the Ms. University pageant. Judges interviewed each contestant and each girl participated in a question-and-answer session, as well as evening gown and talent competition. The judges evaluated each girl's personality and character. This year's judges included John Schneider, Claudia Henagan, Mrs. Raymond Blanco and A. Breaux.

Greek Socials, Greek Games, Greek Week and Greek Brotherhood were only the minor activities of the USL Interfraternity Council. The IFC wasn't just fun, it was work. We discovered that to work for improvement in our community, our brothers, and our university was to improve ourselves. This year saw our dreams of a "Greek Row" take its initial form. The fraternity system at USL was strengthened by a revised and updated constitution, bylaws, and a new standards committee for our self-discipline. We pledged hard work and discipline for the present and maturity and big things for the future.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Panhellenic Creed

We, The Undergraduate members of women's fraternities, stand for good scholarship, for guarding of good health, for maintenance of fine standards, and for serving, to the best of our ability, our college community. Cooperation for furthering fraternity life, in harmony with its best possibilities, is the ideal that shall guide our fraternity activities.

We, The Fraternity Women of America, stand for service through the development of character inspired by the close contact and deep friendship of individual fraternity and Panhellenic life. The opportunity for wide and wise human service, through mutual respect and helpfulness, is the tenet by which we strive to live.

GREEK LIFE

HAIL THE GREEKS!

Fraternities are back in full force on campus. How to account for this renaissance of pledging, paddling, and the old school tie in a time of recession, Watergate, and pervasive cynicism about values in general? Why, because Fraternities fight alienation and loneliness, the twin ogres spawned by today's cultural patterns. The big university is about as friendly and homey as an isolation ward. It bristles with computers and it resounds with taped lectures. Kids just out of high school are as incapable of relating to such mass impersonality as if they were suddenly plunked down in the middle of Times Square during the five o'clock rush.

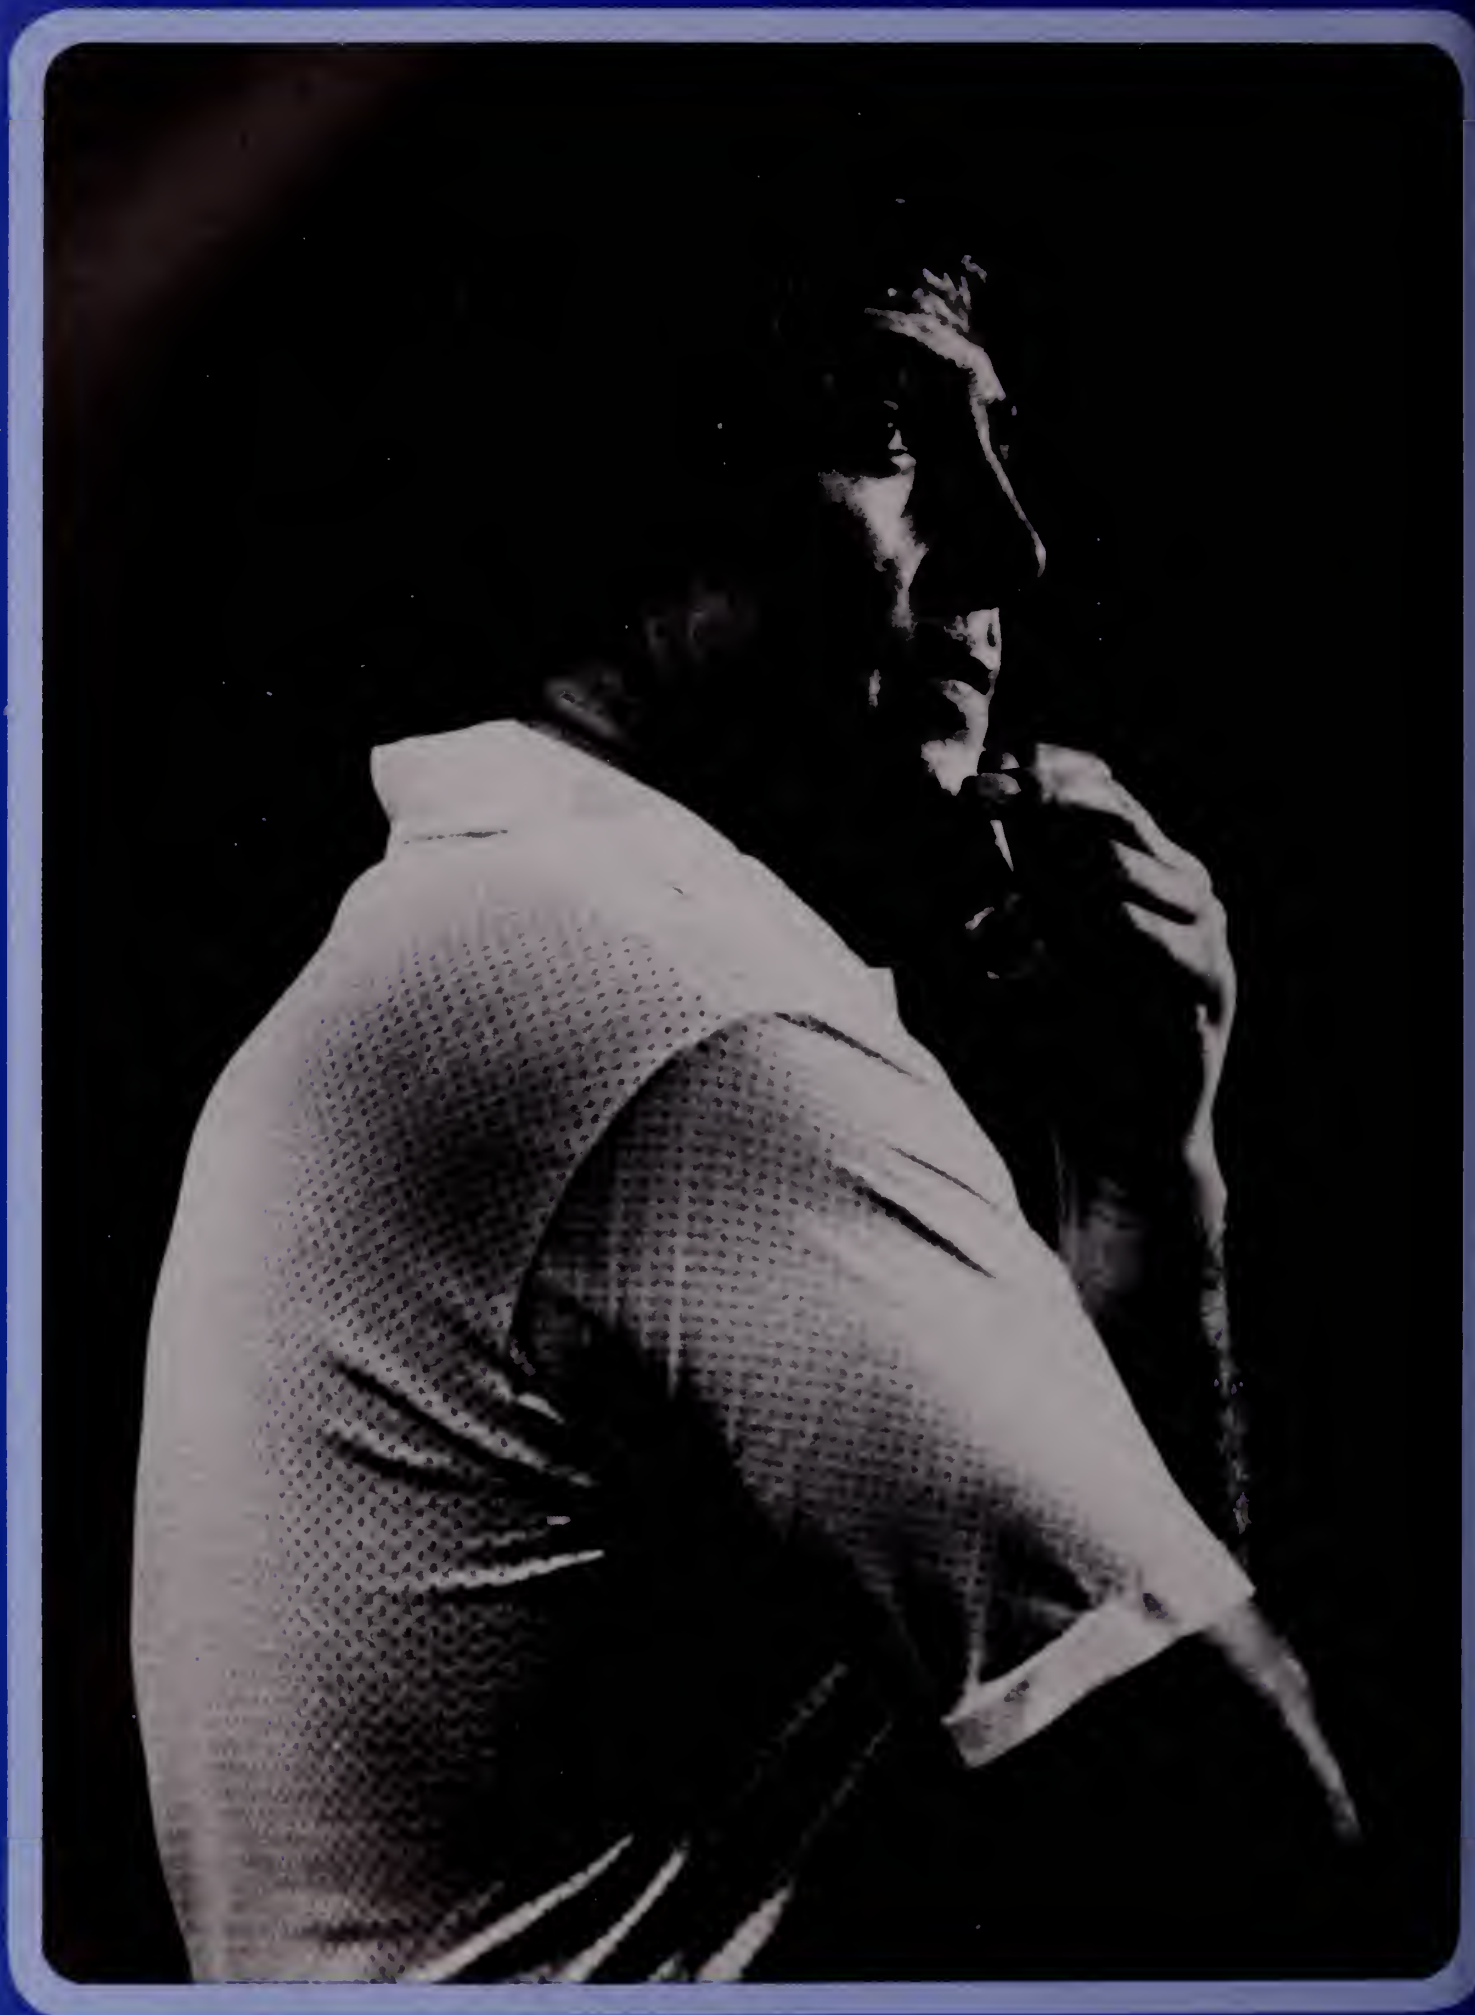

The much smaller college of yesterday could and did give the new student advice, understanding, and a feeling of belongingness. So, incidentally, did the home and the church, both of which institutions having since become virtually moribund. Now a vacuum exists in the whole field of educational human relations, and the fraternity is shouldering the chore of filling it.

Once in a fraternity, you see, you belong among others of your kind again. The "brotherhood" it was once so mod to scoff at during the "Sick Sixties" is a very real thing, needed by every member of homo sapiens except for the very few oddies designed by nature to be hermits. Human beings need fellowship. They are intended for mutual support. Hence the high survival value of such "brotherly" organizations as Rotary, Kiwanis, and Greek-letter fraternities.

There is more to higher education than book-learning, bra-burning, and breast-beating. There are, in addition, friendship, fellowship, and plain old fun, and the organizations which supply these healthy leavenings should never be long absent from our campuses.

Welcome home, Fraternities!

SPORTS

PARTICIPATION . . .

Whether on the field or in the stands, on the intramural or intra-collegiate level, participation is the key; sports, the reason for being. So take advantage of the various sports programs on campus. They're here for your enjoyment.

1975

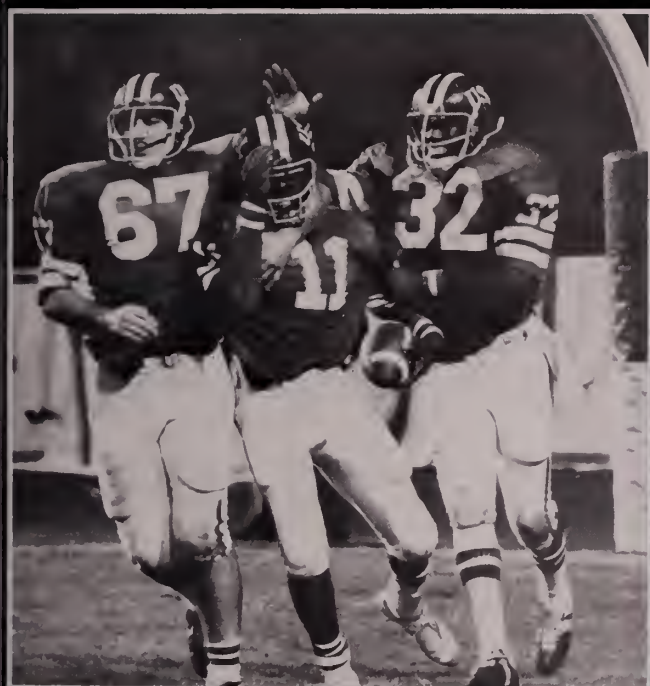

The Ragin' Cajuns traveled to California for their season opener, where they staged a fourth quarter rally to spring a major upset over the Long Beach State 49ers. USL was the first to score, with a pair of Henry to Porter passes and a Rafael Septian extra point kick. Soon thereafter, however, Long Beach took over, running up the score to a 17-7 lead in the fourth quarter with 12 minutes left. Here the Cajuns capitalized on pass interceptions by Randy McClanahan and G. A. Rodrique to gain a 22-17 victory.

USL 22 - LONG BEACH 17

USL came home for its second game of the season, playing before an estimated 22,000 fans. And disappointed they weren't, USL picking up an impressive 27-10 win over Southern Illinois. The Cajuns had a total offensive output of 446 yards for the night, 226 of them coming from the rushing and passing of quarterback Roy Henry, the game's outstanding offensive player. Rafael Septian hit field goals of 25 and 52 yards to add to the score. With this victory, USL had accomplished in two games what it took all of last year to do.

USL 31 - N. MEXICO 7

For their third effort of the season, USL completely overpowered a favored and previously unbeaten New Mexico State team to the tune of 31-7. The Cajuns scored on their first two possessions of the night, while holding NMS to a total of three yards in the same period. The rest of the game continued in similar fashion, the only NMS score coming in the fourth quarter on a 47 yard bomb. The victory put the Cajuns' record at 3-0.

ARKANSAS ST. 39 - USL 17

USL's Rajun' Cajuns hit the road again for their next matchup against the Arkansas State Indians. The Cajuns played brilliantly for the first half, scoring two touchdowns and a field-goal while effectively stopping the Indians via two interceptions and goal-line stands at the one and four. The score at the half was 17-6, USL, but things quickly turned around as ASU amassed a remarkable 33 points in the second half, coming from behind to win the game, 39-17.

LOUISIANA TECH 24 - USL 14

USL's next game of the season brought the record to 3-2, as the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs bumped the Cajuns into a 24-14 submission. The game was lifeless for USL up until the final minutes. By that time it was already too late, the Bulldogs being three touchdowns ahead. The most exciting moment of the game happened when a group of daring spectators uprooted a derogatory sign in the end zone, causing a scuffle more interesting than the game itself.

USL 21 - LAMAR 12

USL returned home from its two-game losing streak to play winless Lamar for the Cajuns third conference matchup. Due to injuries, three starters failed to suit up for the game. That didn't stop the Cajuns, though, as they fought back from a 6-0 and later a 12-7 deficit to emerge victorious. USL scores came from a Pollard pass to Walt Slattery, a six-yard keeper by frosh quarterback Rick Young, and a 46-yard interception return by cornerback Barry Johnson. It was the first conference victory for USL, and put their overall record at 4-2.

For their last road game of the season, USL traveled to Cincinnati to play the tough University of Cincinnati Bearcats. The game was characterized by a very strong Bearcat rushing defense, which allowed the Cajuns minus 16 yards rushing in the whole game. As a result, the Cajuns passed on almost every play, throwing a total of 36 passes for 338 yards. USL scores came on Roy Henry passes to Oliver and Durant for two touchdowns and a 52 yard fieldgoal by Rafael Septian. Bearcat scores came on two touchdowns and fieldgoals of 22, 33, and 40 yards.

CINCINNATI 23 - USL 17

USL's Ragin Cajuns returned home for good to a record-breaking homecoming crowd for their matchup with the University of Texas — Arlington. The Cajuns, as usual, played a solid first half, building up a 28-7 lead, only to let most of it slip away in the second half. Not all of it, however, as the Cajuns hung on, 35-32. The winning touchdown came on an 80-yard run by Mike Northcutt, the game's outstanding offensive player. The victory was a fitting end to a week of homecoming activities, and moved them one step closer to a winning season.

USL 35 - UTA 32

HOMECOMING

A blocked punt which went for a touchdown and a backfired onside kick proved to be the fatal clinchers in USL's 19-14 defeat to the University of the Pacific. The Cajuns fell behind early, played catch up football, and then let victory slip away. The game marked the worst attendance and the most badly played half of the season.

PACIFIC 19 - USL 14

USL 40 - NORTHWESTERN 17

USL proved that they did indeed have an offense, as they ran up 40 big points to totally overwhelm Northwestern Louisiana University. It was the sixth victory for the Cajuns this season, and marked the first time since 1971 that USL has had a winning season. Roy Henry led the Cajun offense, aided by moments of brilliance from Barry Pollard. Henry connected on 12 of 18 passes for 166 yards and two touchdowns, and ran for another TD. Roy Williams led the rushing attack with 85 yards on three carries, while the receiving crew was anchored by Dave Oliver, who made five receptions for 55 yards.

McNEESE 33 - USL 21

USL and McNeese met for their annual bout on this final game of the season, and McNeese left the victor. The loss came as a disappointment to the near sellout crowd — a record 25,710 fans — and set the final season record at 6-5. The Cajuns jumped out to an early 14-0 lead in the first quarter, but then apparently became numbed by the cold, failing to score again until the final quarter. By then, it was already too late — McNeese won the game 33-21.

1975 CHEERLEADERS

SOCCKER

Soccer at USL is still considered a club sport. The players from four continents give up their spare time to train and play for the team, without such incentives as credit or scholarships. However, the athletic department has allocated limited funds to be used against traveling expenses.

Front Row: Abdullah Al-fuwaires, (Kuwait); Hersal Mottahedeh (Iran); Hassan Trebshan, (Lebanon); Gorge Santos, (Honduras); Chuck Gilbert, (USA); Sammy Balogun, (Nigeria); Dandashi Mukarram (Syria); Jamshid-Arasteh (Iran).

Not Pictured: Masoud-Pirouznia (Iran); Jean-Pierre Francois (France); Pablo Mejia (Honduras); Bernard Robert (France); Julio Zepeda (Honduras).

Soccer is an all-year sport, so the season does not stop at the end of the fall semester, but carries on through to the last week of the spring semester. This means that the players must practice continuously while they are at school.

Coach Mark Robson took over the club in the spring, 1975 semester, and the first match under him was an 11-2 trashing of the Lake Charles Wolves. The club went on to reach the finals of the only intra-state tournament in Louisiana, the La. Tech Tourney in Ruston.

Educational Expedition International

Karen Dupont, a Lafayette junior majoring in fishery biology, competed last year in a national testing program for the Educational Expedition International Scholarship. She was one of two Louisiana students to win one of these scholarships on the merit of her test scores and academic record. Karen spent June 1975 at Lake Myosotis in Rensselaerville, New York. She and the other members of her team analyzed the chemical, physical and biological contents of the lake and learned many modern research techniques from scientists who came from around the world. Karen's achievements are a credit to USL. This year she was awarded the Louisiana Land and Exploration Scholarship. Karen is the president of the USL Biological Society, Phi Eta Sigma sweetheart and an active member of Honors Seminar.

Honors Seminar

Students often asked members of Honors Seminar to explain what Seminar was. All answers were different. Some considered Honors Seminar to be an elective course with only auditors enrolled, the weekly meeting of an honor society, or a welcome break from the feeling of anonymity produced by mass education. Perhaps Seminar was all of these.

Seminar met each Thursday morning at eleven o'clock in the Union Forum. Students were invited to enroll on the basis of academic achievements and ACT scores. Programs were presented each week by the Seminar committees, which included music, human biology, drama, computers, dance, movies, black culture, firearms, pornography, philosophy and others. The Seminar Computer Dating Program was a new committee this year. Other Honors Seminar activities included parties each month, aid to university and community projects, and scholarships for honors students.

Sponsors of Honors Seminar included Dr. Patricia Rickels, Dr. Matt Dakin and Dr. Ron White, director of USL's Honors Program. Many other professors supported Seminar and the sponsors acted as academic advisors for honors students. Many honors courses were offered. The closer association between students in the Honors Program helped to minimize the lack of identity often felt by college students. Honors Seminar was an enjoyable experience for those students who participated and increased enrollment indicates that it will be a beneficial experience as the Honors Program expands at USL.

Alice Pascal, Madelyn Broussard, Joannina, Joey Gull, Betty Prieux were among the Honors Seminar members who attended Dr. Otto Schweitzer's discussion on technology.

Karl Spohn, Laura Meade, and other Seminar members enjoyed the program presented by the humor committee.

Death of a Salesman: Death of a Salesman

an: Death of a Salesman: Death of a Salesman

Willy Loman's story plainly involves a failure of values in the world around him. Willy accepts the denatured ideals of American society — not the values considered the highest but those that were overpublicized in America. He naively succumbs to success-worship, to the belief that a jolly locker-room personality which makes one not only liked but "well liked" is a substitute for solid accomplishment, and to "the wrong dream" of material success. At the age of sixty-three, he is faced with the failure of this way of life, as an unwanted employee and a parent disappointed in the sons to whom he has imparted his own values. Insofar as mistaken ideas have deluded Willy Loman, the play is social criticism.

Death of a Salesman: Death of a Sales

man: Death of a Salesman: Death of a Salesman:

Death of a Salesman was presented to the student body and general public November 19 through 23, 1975. It was written by Arthur Miller and since its first production at the Morosco Theatre in New York on February 10, 1949 it has been highly acclaimed as possibly the greatest American tragedy ever written.

It has since been awarded the Drama Critics Circle Award and a Pulitzer Prize. Arthur Miller's work takes on a very expressionistic dimension by way of the sordid surroundings in which his characters function, music, lights and poetical language. Arthur Miller once said of his plays:

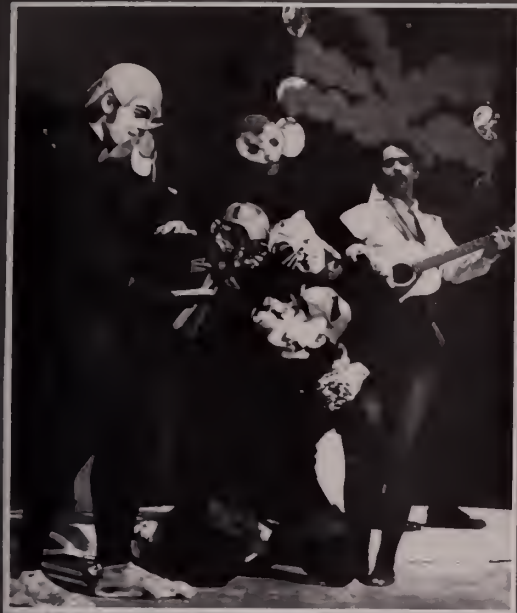

In all my plays and books I try to take settings and dramatic situations from life which involve real questions of right and wrong. Then I set out, rather implacably and in the realistic situations I can find, the moral dilemma and try to point a real, though hard, path out. I don't see how you can write anything decent without using the questions of right and wrong as the basis.

"This year the nation is observing its Bicentennial and this University is observing its 75th anniversary . . . its Diamond Jubilee. Each in its own right has achieved much and it is fitting that we take proper note of their achievements.

"We here at the University are excited about the achievements of USL up to this point in time, but we are even more aroused and challenged about the future possibilities of USL. We have a number of unique programs in effect at USL, such as the Bilingual Center and the Multics Computer and the programs emanating from it, which testify to our leadership role in higher education. We believe that the continued success of this University depends upon our ability to continue to make our programs unique. We credit our success thus far to an involved student body, faculty, and administration coupled with the strong support of our alumni, friends of the University, governmental agencies and that of the total community.

"The University recognizes, as it always has, that its primary service is to the undergraduate student. However, we are pleased with the significant strides that have been made in many areas of graduate study and by University College in providing continuing education and special services to various groups and industries such as the 11 schools offered for the oil industry.

"Thus, the University, in its Diamond Jubilee year, reveals itself as a prize jewel of Southwest Louisiana that now and far into the future will cast a sparkle and a brilliance over Acadiana, as it seeks greater educational roles."

Advertising students spend many hours working on their projects.

Enthusiastic students and dedicated teachers work in harmony to strive for better knowledge.

Dr. Ted Lewis and Dr. Bruce Shriver examine an illustration of microprocessors, or "computers on a chip," small scale computers which have made possible such recent innovations as hand calculators and digital wrist watches. The Computer Science department has been given a software grant from American Microsystems, Inc., two California microprocessor companies. The grant will go toward computer research at USL's new central processor facility.

Kathleen DeJean, a dance major, attended the American Dance Festival School this summer at Connecticut College, New London, Connecticut, under the sponsorship of the Children's Dance Guild.

Elaine Galland skeptically examines the ever popular crawfish of Acadiana in the biology lab.

Advertising Design students exert creative enthusiasm in their work. Jeanette Poulin sets ideas to a working design.

*WORDS DO NOT EXPRESS
THOUGHTS VERY WELL;
EVERYTHING IMMEDIATELY
BECOMES A LITTLE DIFFERENT,
A LITTLE DISTORTED, A LITTLE
FOOLISH. AND YET IT ALSO PLEASES ME AND SEEMS RIGHT THAT WHAT IS OF
VALUE AND WISDOM TO ONE MAN SEEMS NONSENSE TO
